PETEROGRADE CLAIMS GERMANS HAVE BEEN REPULSED AT SOME POINTS.

RESUME FIGHTING IN WEST

Heavy Cannonading Near Ypres Is Heard—British Better Better
Their Position.

(Associated Press)

The Teuton armies are being held in check west of Warsaw but are progressing elsewhere on the eastern front, according to today's advices from Berlin and Vienna.

Fighting In West.

Heavy fighting is in progress on the British front near Ypres, Belgium reports that the boom of the great guns and mine explosions were audible for hours, and that the firing was followed by a steady stream of wounded from the vicinity of Hooge.

British Take Position.

The crest of the ridge on the Galipoli peninsula has been gained by the British troops and the position of the British army there is much improved, it was officially announced at London.

Withheld Information.

The British steamer Ransae, 2300 tons gross, has been sunk. The captain and eleven of the crew of twenty-four landed safely. The ship was probably sunk by a German submarine, but announcement to this effect is withheld, as the British government no longer makes public information showing the waters in which German submarines operate.

Palestine Fruit Losses.

Letters from Joffa say that fruit growers in Palestine stand to lose $30,000,000 because the Turks have seized the petroleum necessary to spray the trees, have taken the lumber to make gutters to carry water, and have drafted the laborers. The absence of petroleum has resulted in a plague of locusts.

Raid on Strassburg.

A flotilla of Anglo-French aeroplanes dropped twenty-five bombs on Strassburg, the capital of Alsace-Lorraine, says a Geneva dispatch. The damage was not ascertained.

Transport Sunk.

A large German transport was sunk in the Baltic sea by a British submarine, it has been officially stated in Petrograd.

Russians Fight Back.

Before Ivangorod the Russians have withdrawn to more concentrated positions. Petrograd announces; and the Russian capital also says that on both banks of the Vjeps the enemy has been repulsed while between the iVstula and Bug rivers and on the banks of the Narow south of Ostrolenka sanguinary fighting continues.

Austrians Successful.

Vienna declares that the Austrians have been successful at Ivangorod, capturing 2,000 prisoners.

Hurtled Rock on Troops.

A large proportion of the Austrian losses were caused by hurling rocks from the mountains, according to letters from the front reaching here. More than 10,000 Austrians were crushed to death in their trenches in this way.

CLODBURST CAUSED BIG DAMAGE

Central Illinois Reports Torrential
Rains Last Night.

(Associated Press)

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Heavy damage was done by torrential rains in north and central Illinois last night. In Peoria and vicinity a cloudburst caused $10,000 damage. The east side of Joliet is under water and considerable damage resulted in the southwestern part of Chicago.

NEGRO MAYOR GETS 15 YEARS

He and Five Policemen Sentenced
Today For Murder.

(Associated Press)

Belleville, Ill., Aug. 3.—Jas. Thomas, Sr., the negro mayor of Brooklyn, Ill., a negro settlement and five negro policemen were sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary for the murder of Robert Jackson, a policeman under the former administration, during an election row.

Western Electric Co. Gives Loss In Eastland As 981

Figures Were Announced Today
Ship Inspectors In Handcuffs

(Associated Press)

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Nine hundred and eighty-one lives were lost in the Eastland disaster, according to the figures of Western Electric Co., who announced their final checking today.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—The climax of the campaign for blood atonement carried on by the Chicago newspapers over the Eastland disaster and the continued abuse of Secretary Redfield and federal inspectors by the same organs was reached today when a deputy sheriff brought U. S. Inspectors Reid and Eckliff, men of character and standing and voluntary witnesses in the various investigations, to the federal court building handcuffed together like ordinary criminals.

Solicitor General A. L. Thurman of the department of commerce and labor was astounded at the indignity. He met the men in the corridor just outside the hearing room and noticed the manacles on their wrists. "What does this mean?" he demanded.

The deputy sheriff in charge explained that all prisoners are treated alike and the inspectors were undergoing the common experience.

"I'll see about this," indignantly declared Mr. Thurman. "I'll put a stop to such treatment of these inspectors."

Later attorneys appeared before Judge Landis, asking the release of the men on habeas corpus writs. The hearings were set for today.

MISS DOWNS SAVED LIFE OF LITTLE GIRL

FORMER DIXON GIRL BECAME A HEROINE AT EVANSTON BATHING BEACH.

Miss Harie M. Downs, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Downs of Evanston, formerly of Dixon, rescued Marian Brand from drowning at the bathing beach at Evanston.

Miss Brand, about 12 years old, waded out and before realizing her danger stepped into deep water. Miss Downs, hearing her cries for help, immediately swam to her and after a struggle succeeded in getting her to shore. The other bathers, being some distance away, did not realize the gravity of the situation until Miss Downs had brought her in and placed her on a raft.

FRANKLIN GROVE MAN BEFORE GRAND JURY

COURT TROSTLE'S AUTO STRUCK
MINNEAPOLIS MAN, WHO DIED LATER.

Friends of Court Trostle, formerly of Franklin Grove, have received word from him regarding an unfortunate accident which befell him recently in Minneapolis, when an auto truck, which he was demonstrating, struck an aged gentleman who died several days after the accident, and for which the former Franklin man was held to the grand jury under a bond of $5000. The grand jury meets this week.

According to the information at hand the fender of Mr. Trostle's car struck the victim soon after he had alighted from a street car, and because of his advanced age and weak heart, the shock proved fatal.

MILITARY DANCE POSTPONED

Inclement Weather Causes Change In Co. G Arrangements.

Because of the inclement weather which would keep many of the soldier boys from getting down town, Co. G has postponed their military dance, which was to have been given at the Armory this evening, until tomorrow night.

FOOD IS ENROUTE TO STARVING CITY

TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION WITH VERA CRUZ ALSO OPENED.

TROOPS DESERT TO CARRANZA

(Associated Press)
Washington, Aug. 3.—Telegraphic communication between Vera Cruz and Mexico City has been restored and provisions began entering the city yesterday. Other trainloads of food are enroute.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 3.—Troops in the Villa garrison of Guzman, seventy-eight miles southwest of Juarez, revolted Sunday and, making prisoners of their commanding officers, declared for the cause of Venustiano Carranza. This report was received by the Carranza officials in El Paso and was later confirmed by railway officials.

Details brought here of Villa's seizure of the goods of foreign and Mexican merchants in Chihuahua City show that the conditions under which the seizure was made were more aggravated than first reported. According to a number of the victims who have reached here, Villa, stamping in blind rage up and down the main room of the governor's palace, shook

BRINTON WANTS SON
TO FIND BRIDE NOW

CHICAGO PAPER QUOTES FORMER MAYOR AS TIRED OF BOARDING BRADFORD.

A special in this morning's issue of the Chicago Tribune from Champaign says:

William B. Brinton of Dixon, president of a plow concern and formerly a politician, is dispatching his son, Bradford Brinton, to the tractor demonstration in Champaign with the hope that he will find a bride among the farm girls there.

"If you happen to run into any good looking farm girl, introduce him," wrote the father to the local managers. "I have boarded him about long enough."

YE OLD FOLKS CO.

Thursday is "Good Roads Day."

All persons are deeply interested in this movement. Friday evening Miss Ethel Virgin, opera singer, known to several families of Dixon, will sing. Miss Virgin is a singer of splendid ability and many Dixon people will desire to hear this talented woman.

Saturday evening the Dixon Orchestra and the Dixon Marine band will play a full concert.

Belharz, Impersonator, Pleases

The heavy downpour of rain last night kept many from attending the entertainment afforded by Noah Bellharz, the eminent impersonator. Those who ventured out in the storm were well paid for coming.

His program was the best of its character ever given here and those who heard him have requested the management to book Bellharz for the session next year.

Council After I. C. To Cut Weeds On Right of Way Here

Railroad Company Has Been Negligent In This Work
This Summer

The council meeting this morning was short. Monthly bills in the sum of $4,626.15 were read and allowed. The bills were heavy this month as the bill for the new street sweeper, repairs on the heating system at the city hall and street lighting bills all boosted the total. The finance commissioner called the attention of the department heads to the fact that it would be necessary to keep expenses as low as possible. The rains of the past few weeks have added expense to the street department and necessary repairs to be made.

A petition from R. A. Rodesch asking permission to build a four-foot arway under the alley at the rear of the building he is to erect on Galena avenue was granted, work to be under the supervision of the city engineer.

The Illinois Central railroad company has neglected to cut weeds on their right of way through the city and property owners at Central Place presented a petition to the council asking that the city take the matter up with the railroad and have the weeds cut. Commissioner of Health Van Bibber had the matter up some time ago and Mayor Schmidt again took the matter up with Agent Backus yesterday and he has agreed to have the work done.

SECOND ASSESSMENT NECESSARY ON STREET

NORTH CRAWFORD AVE. PAVING
COST MORE THAN FIRST ESTIMATE.

At the meeting of the board of local improvements today the final cost of the brick paving on North Crawford avenue by Contractors Rink & Schnell was received. The improvement exceeded the estimate of the engineer and it will be necessary to levy a special assessment for the delinquency. It is a fine street and when the township gets the paving laid to the epileptic colony it will make one of the finest drives out of the city. All property on the street has been enhanced in value by the improvement.

PHOTO PLAYS.

A photoplay is one of those silences that is golden.

Whereas an actor can talk and tear out his durable lungs or 25 years and then go into bankruptcy with large liabilities, a photoplay can pull in a wash tub full of nickels a day without saying a word.

Thousands of skilled mechanics are now at work writing photoplays with a stub pencil on the back of an old envelope and turning them into films. A good photoplay is a couple of miles long. But it isn't as long, at that, as some of the speeches in Hamlet.

It costs $2 and carriage fare to see a famous play with words, and 10 cents to see the same play with the words omitted. This is why millions of people are flocking to the moving picture palaces while the treasurer of the legitimate theatre has so little to do that he forgets to be cold and aloof when a customer comes in.

This is a sad condition and one which leads us to wonder if speech is all it is cracked up to be after all. Perhaps a large number of political candidates who have talked their way through a stricken state and have reaped only campaign bills and unclassified regrets from the effort, would have succeeded better if they had put themselves into a film and had hired a husky villain representing the trust to bang them on the head with a club.

And maybe some young man who has talked for two years to a beautiful girl without any particular result will soon discover that if he will illustrate in a three-reel film the luxuries of future life with him, he will dazzle her with his new-found eloquence.

In the photoplay we are transported swiftly from luxury to poverty, from comedy to drippy tragedy and from the wild and uncombed west as represented by a New Jersey hillside, to the luxuries of New York as represented by a hired eleven-room house in Hoboken. Heroines pass rapidly in and out of the jaws of lions and are blown from cannon and thrown from steamships without material damage, while the movie hero who can't shin up a church spire, grab a passing aeroplane by the tale and escape over Niagara Falls is a poor and timid performer and will get nowhere in his art.

Maybe this is why the movie play is so popular after all. If anyone attempted to stage a good movie play with real actors in a real theatre he would have to renew his cast three times a week.

THREE TIMES AND OUT SAYS OLD J. P.

DIXON-PAWPAW GAME IS AGAIN POSTPONED BY WEATHER PERSON.

MT. MORRIS HERE NEXT SUNDAY

Game Will Be Last On Lincoln Park Diamond For Some Time, It Is Said.

Old Jupiter Pluvius apparently has it in for Pawpaw—or possibly he is working for the interest of the ball players of that community in preventing their meeting the Dixon Home Guards, who are athirst for revenge. At any rate he has caused a third postponement of the game between the Dixon and Pawpaw teams, which was set for this afternoon and which, because of the muddy diamond, had to be called off. If possible the game will be played on Friday.

MT. Morris Sunday.
The Mt. Morris team, which defeated Freeport, Rochelle, Pawpaw, DeKalb and many of the strong teams in this section of the state, will be here Sunday afternoon for what—if the plans of the management are not changed—will be the last home game for the Dixon team for some time. The Mt. Morris team will have a league battery and a bunch of fans will accompany the players, as there is a general feeling in this city that Mt. Morris will cop the game.

Dixon's record thus far this season is:

ROOSEVELT WILL STAND BY MOOSE

Former President Refuses to Desert to G. O. P.

MAKES FORMAL STATEMENT

Returning From His Long Trip Over Country Colonel Declares He Will Register as Progressive—Thinks Party Has Not Outlived Its Usefulness—Favors Johnson.

New York, Aug. 2.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will stand by the Progressive cause and will not re-enter the Republican party.

That was his definite statement at Oyster Bay after he returned with Mrs. Roosevelt from a lively and pleasurable visit to the Canadian northwest, the American Pacific coast and the Panama-Pacific exposition.

There was no shading of meaning whatever in the brief but direct statement to which he restricts himself, despite much urging to amplify his views. The colonel's present political philosophy comes to this: Others who are going back to the Republican fold after three years of allegiance to Progressive principles have a perfect right to do so. The colonel feels no anger or resentment. That they should weaken after three years gives him a little sorrow as his close friends understand but at least he feels kindly to them for having remained steadfast so long. Here is the way he expressed himself:

Cannot Rejoin Republicans.

"As regards the Progressives who have announced their intention of enrolling as Republicans in this state, I have nothing to say except that I think it has been fine of them to have made the great fight they have made during the past three years for Progressive principles and I am sure that they are acting conscientiously in the step they now take, and with the purpose of doing what they regard as most useful to the community.

"Holding the convictions I do, it would be an impossibility for me myself to take the step. I shall enroll as a Progressive, and if any man in this state asks my advice I shall advise him also to enroll as a Progressive."

This statement represented all that Colonel Roosevelt had to say for publication on his return to Sagamore Hill. It was drafted after he had rested from the fatigue of his long journey and was given to the press by John McGrath, the colonel's secretary. Its contents, however, did not surprise close friends of Colonel Roosevelt who had discussed with him in a general way the future of the Progressive party. These friends had made up their minds that all talk of his leaving the Progressive party and seeking preferment or power in the Republican party was baseless. The colonel's standpoint is that he is just as earnest and loyal in his Progressive leadership as he was the day his followers walked out of the Chicago convention with a hymn tune as marching tune.

Will Favor Governor Johnson.

Persons who are in a position to know the colonel's views say that he does not believe that the usefulness of the Progressive party as a political organization is at an end by any means. They say that his notion is that the party will exert a tremendous influence in the coming state elections and in the next national canvass. They have gathered the impression that Colonel Roosevelt himself will not be his party's candidate for president, but will be content to support any ardent Progressive favored by the majority of the party, with Governor Hiram Johnson of California as first choice. In other words, the colonel will do his best to line up the full strength of the Progressives for another stiff battle in 1916, a battle in which national preparedness for war and national self respect will be inscribed upon the Progressive banners.

Canadian Greeting Astonished Him.

The greeting he received through Alberta and British Columbia rather astonished him in its heartiness. The Canadians turned out for the colonel and shouted for him as if he had been one of their own leaders campaigning for a seat in the dominion parliament. He was reminded, literally of some of his own tempestuous campaigns by the incessant torch light processions and band concerts that were held in his honor in Canadian territory. These tributes were due, it was understood, to his outspoken antagonism to Germany's methods of war making, although the colonel has always been rather popular north of the line.

During the three weeks he delivered only two long speeches which he considered of importance, one in San Francisco and another at San Diego, but he was called upon frequently for brief train end talks and made them before large crowds. The territory he covered with its opportunities for political observation, may be estimated by his general itinerary which was going west, through Chicago, St. Paul and the Canadian northwest, to Vancouver, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego and returning east through Salt Lake, Omaha and Chicago.

ELECTION FRAUD IN TERRE HAUTE UPSET

Court Fires Brother of Dennis Shea From Sheriff's Office.

Rockville, Ind., Aug. 3.—George W. Krietenstein, Republican, was declared by Judge George D. Sunkel, in the Parke Circuit court, to have been legally elected sheriff of Vigo county at the general election held there Nov. 3, 1914, defeating Dennis Shea by a plurality of 145 votes.

The decision of Judge Sunkel was a precedent maker in Indiana procedure, in that it held that the returns from Precinct A of the Sixth ward of Terre Haute were so permeated with fraud as to make it impossible for the court to separate the legal from the illegal votes, and for this reason the entire returns were thrown out.

The court held that Krietenstein was entitled to the office from Jan. 1, 1915, for the term of two years and ruled that John J. Shea Jr., who succeeded to the office after his brother Dennis Shea had no rights to the office beyond those originally belonging to his brother, and dispossessed him of the office, which he has held since April 1, when Dennis Shea was convicted in the federal court of election conspiracy and resigned. John J. Shea being elected by the county commissioners.

Dry's Hurting Beer Trade.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 3.—For the first time since the beer inspection law was enacted in 1899, the report shows a decrease. The receipts from the inspection for July, 1915, compared with the same month of 1914, shows a decrease of $19,863.04. This means a decrease of about 100,000 barrels of beer manufactured and placed upon the market.

TRACTOR EXHIBIT IS LARGEST IN WORLD

fectured with one of the tractor companies.

Several freaks in the line of engines are among those being demonstrated. In addition to gasoline and kerosene burning tractors of all sizes in the usual designs there are three-wheeled tractors, caterpillar tractors, the kind that are now playing such a prominent part in the war in Europe, tractors with automobile engines and canopy tops and a tractor that is controlled by reins instead of a steering wheel.

Night Exhibitions.

Not only will demonstrations be given in the afternoon, but there will also be night exhibitions, as many of the machines are fitted with lights. Some of the tractors will be operated by women.

Aside from the actual demonstration in the field, interesting programs have been arranged for the evening meetings to be held at the University of Illinois. These meetings will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and lectures will be given by C. O. Reed of the University of Illinois and Frank I. Mann of Gilman, a prominent farmer; I. W. Dickerson of the University faculty; Raymond Olney of St. Joseph, Mich.; F. M. White of the University of Wisconsin and Dr. H. E. Horton.

Special provision was made by the University of Illinois and experiment station to insure visitors a satisfactory and instructive view of the institution. Special guides were on hand and farmers were shown the visible evidences of what becomes of the $5,000,000 appropriation provided for the needs of the institution. They were shown how the 5,000 students and 777 members of the administrative and teaching force occupy their time. They saw some 45 buildings including the great armory, which is covered by the largest unsupported arch in America and which furnishes a drill floor for 2200 students at one time.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

Yes, there are two ways of looking at most things. There are, frinstance, folks who will tell you that you shouldn't spend your money when the price of everything is going up, and others will tell you that, under such conditions, the longer you save the less you can buy with it.

seet believes in baptism with ginger ale. For, following his immersion by members of the fire dept. in water, he was liberally sprinkled with the beverage above mentioned by a lady who evidently didn't think the water would "take."

And Dave Kelly of the fire dept. is also the possessor of a serious problem. Recently a pair of new shoes which he had just started to break in, commenced to squeak. It got to be really annoying around the dept. headquarters. If Mitchell was working on the auto truck and Kelly should happen to walk around anywhere within half a block of the place Mitch. would hear the squeak and at once think there was something wrong with the "engine" of the machine. Finally the noise was located in Dave's feet. He has done his best to remedy it, too. Driven countless nails into the soles, soaked 'em in water, etc., but the squeak remains. Now some of the boys are unkind enough to remark that the squeak is not in the shoes at all—but is most likely caused by worn-out bearings in Dave's ankles.

We notice by the dispatches that a man in Chicago was shot in the rotunda. If he'd been thin that wouldn't have happened to him probably.

Nothing To Do Till Tomorrow.

The life of an editor is one path of sweet-scented, blushing roses. If you don't believe it, ask any editor. All he has got to do is work. One of the esteemed weekly editors sizes up the matter as follows:

"To run a newspaper all a fellow has to do is to be able to write poems, discuss the tariff and money questions, umpire a baseball game, report a wedding, saw wood, describe a fire so that the readers will shed their wraps, make $1 do the work of $10, shine at a dance, measure calico, abuse the liquor habit, test whiskey, subscribe to charity, go without meals, attack free silver, wear diamonds, invent advertisements, sneer at snobbery, overlook scandal, appraise babies, delight pumpkin raisers, minister to the afflicted, heal the disgruntled, fight to a finish, set type, hold opinion, sweep the office, speak at the prayer meetings and stand in with everybody and everything."

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE.

Pictures tonight: "Those Love Pangs," featuring Charlie Chaplin; "The Esterbrook Case," a three reel Vitagraph film, and "The Liberty Party," featuring Ham and Bud.

OPERA HOUSE.

Tonight's bill at the opera house will consist of a highly interesting series of variegated motion pictures. Comedy and melodrama will be pleasantly intermingled.

Tomorrow this popular playhouse resumes its vaudeville features and will continue them for the balance of the week.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess theatre will show a two reel feature entitled "The Play of the Season," a Kay-Bee feature with George Fisher and Estelle Allen in the leading roles, a story in which a play is written by a girl and proves a huge success. The other pictures are "The Little Catamount," a Majestic drama, with Dorothy Gish and W. E. Lawrence in the leading roles, featuring Dorothy Gish as a savage lass of the mountains. The last reel is a Keystone comedy entitled "The Battle of Who Run," a very good comedy.

PALACE THEATRE, CHICAGO

"Maid in America" continues the stellar attraction of the Chicago summer and is rapidly breaking all records at the Palace Music Hall. This attraction, direct from the New York Winter Garden, appears to possess a particular charm for Chicago theatregoers. As the critics said, it is certainly the most attractive and richest and brightest of all the Winter Garden attractions, and Winter Garden always means superlative in every way.

"Maid in America" enjoys the distinction of being a spectacular revue with real entertainment. In its company are seen a score or more stars, any one of whom may be looked upon as a head liner. In this list are Florence Moore, Mlle Dazie, Minerva Coverdale, Bert Clarke, Swor and Mack, Yvette, Rita Gould, Bly Brown, Will Stanton, William Gibson, Sam Adams, Louise Mink, Kathryn Andrews, Harold Robe, Coogan and Cox and James Grant. There is the usual Winter Garden beauty chorus and this year is said to have turned out the finest crop of beauties ever seen in a Winter Garden attraction. There is the famous runway down the center of the house and the girls not only parade on this, but saunter through the aisles singing their songs.

All in all, "Maid in America," has a myriad of features and so many novelties that it is little wonder that it has proved a wonderful magnet for those who are seeking real entertainment this summer.

There are Wednesday and Thursday matinees at $1 and $1.50 Saturday matinee. There will also be a special matinee Monday, July 5.

GARRICK THEATRE—CHICAGO.

To the visitor in Chicago this summer there are many bright musical plays to see, and among them one stands out, namely, "All Over Town" with Chicago's favorite musical comedy star and matinee idol, Joseph Santley. This pleasing and rollicking revue is to be seen at the Garrick theatre, which has become known as the home of musical hits. Mr. Santley needs no introduction to Chicago audiences as he has for three years past been prominent in plays like "A Modern Eve, When Dreams Come True, and also had a fling at vaudeville. In a way "All Over Town" can be called a musical play, made up of people who have all become identified with Chicago successes, and the cast includes such well known names as Walter Jones, Roy Atwell, Blanche Deyo, Lillian Lee, Marie Flynn, Ruth Randall, Beatrice Allen, Dorothy Young, Saranoff, the violinist and last but not least the forty dancing dimpled darlings. One of the big features of "All Over Town" is the music of Silvio Hein, who has become known as the composer of whistling hits and this is more than true of his latest song "I Can't Forget Your Eyes" now being played and whistled all over Chicago. Of course, it is needless to say that Mr. Santley dances, and he has given society folks a new one entitled "The Parisian Fox Trot" being assisted by Miss Beatrice Allen. To sum it all up anyone wishing to spend a pleasant evening should not overlook Joseph Santley, the Garrick theatre and the latest of all musical revues, "All Over Town."

ROCK RIVER ASSEMBLY

The musical prelude by the Old Folks Choir, given last evening, was exceptionally clever.

Despite the rain more than 1000 persons attended the entertainment.

Campers Cheerful
Rain does not seem to dampen the ardor of the Assembly campers. No damage was done, aside from a few tent stakes being pulled up.

The tent used by the Press Bureau contained about two inches of real water, and after rescuing our typewriter, (I refer to the machine) from the flood, and pulling out of the current the tables and chairs, we are able again to give the readers a complete account of the proceedings at Assembly park.

Rev. Zimmerman of Mt. Morris informed us this morning that he sat buckets, tubs and the frying pan until 2 o'clock catching water in buckets, tubs and the frying pan. During all of the storm the lady of the Zimmerman tent slept peacefully.

Many Hear Robinson
A large audience this afternoon greeted Leland Rex Robinson when he delivered his second lecture, "The Fallacy of Force." This young man is well versed in the problems of today and he handles the subjects in a frank and forceful manner.

His lecture Monday afternoon was on "War" and he presented the subject in a manner that every word was taken in by his auditors. He advocates a federation of the world, and declares that time will see all nations as one, commercially, financially, diplomatically, and otherwise. He believes it is not impossible to accomplish this.

Tonight's Program
The Old Folks' Choir will sing a prelude this evening at 7:30 o'clock and immediately after Rev. Albert T. Clay, Ph. D., a member of the faculty at Yale, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Recent Discoveries in Babylonian." Any person interested in work of this character will find Dr. Clay's lecture an entertaining and instructive one. The Doctor came here to address the Bible conference and in that capacity he was a decided success. He is an easy speaker, not an orator, but every sentence is full of thought.

There will be no program of moving pictures this evening, because Mr. Helms, the picture man, will give his attention to illustrating the Clay lecture.

The Tschakowsky Quartet
Wednesday after the Tschakowsky Quartet and Miss Wood will render a full concert.

This quartet is company of artists. It is a party of cultured gentlemen, born, bred and educated in the centers of musical art—who have heard, studied and played the greatest music, under the greatest conductors and with the greatest players, who follow music as an art and not as a trade, not striving to be heard above others, but to form ensemble and to attain really great musical effects—such they are.

Elizabeth Wood
The Assembly management is pleased to announce Miss Wood, coloratura soprano, in collaboration with the Tschakowsky Quartet. Miss Wood has won a high place musically through sheer pluck and remarkable talent. Her studies have been with the greatest teachers of our time, including Oscar Saenger, and she is by temperament, talent, musicianship and by her culture and personal charm, sure to win real acclaim from the hearts of chautauquans. She entertains with real singing.

The quartet hails from Boston. They will give but one concert this session.

Robinson Pleases
Wednesday at 4:30 Leland Rex Robinson will deliver the last of a series of lectures. His subject will be "Uncle Sam and His Neighbors."

Wednesday evening at 7:30 the Dixon orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Will H. Smith will play a prelude and Totten, the Magician, will entertain the Assembly patrons.

There will be a program of moving pictures immediately after the magician concludes his entertainment. Mr. Helms will show the following pictures—

Buffalo Hunt.
Trip to Jupiter.

The trip to Jupiter is a beautiful color picture and is exceedingly entertaining. The buffalo, of course, will be interesting.

Good Roads Day
Thursday is good roads day and if possible the people interested in good roads, will be present Thursday afternoon. Hon. James Wilson of Polo will preside and the address will be delivered by Hon. Abram D.

Gash of Chicago, well known by many Dixon people. His subject will be "Our Highways." Mr. Gash is president of Illinois Highway Commission.

Change in Program
There will be a shift of program on Friday. Hon. Hamilton Holt, will speak in the afternoon instead of evening and Miss Ethel Virgin soloist, will render her program in the evening instead of the afternoon.

Mr. Holt must leave Dixon at 8 o'clock Friday evening in order to reach his next chautauqua for Saturday afternoon engagement.

HUNDREDS OF WOMEN
Nowadays are entering the professions or business world and go to work day after day in bad health, afflicted with some female ailment, dragging one foot wearily after the other, working with an eye on the clock and wishing for closing time to come.

Women in this condition should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. It has brought health and happiness to more women in America than any other remedy. Give it a trial.

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 2.—Leonard Rossback, sixty-three years old, and John Alvies, seventy, of Danvers, were instantly killed at 11:30 o'clock when an interurban car struck the carriage in which they were riding.

The men were retired farmers. Anton Burch was seriously injured also.

Many Athletic Prizes.
Aurora, Ill., Aug. 2.—A total of sixty-five special prizes will be awarded to winners of the various athletic events at the big merchants' day picnic at Fox River park tomorrow. The program is to include athletic events of every description.

his fist in the faces of the thirty or forty business men of the capital whom he had assembled there and cursed them and their governments. Some of the foreigners, it is reported, were brought to the meeting under guard.

"U. S. Can Go to Hell."
"I am going to take your business for the good of the state," he exclaimed. "Your employees will remain here and conduct the business under the direction of my agents. I am stealing from the state—you have been stealing from the people for yourselves. Tomorrow a train will be ready to take you foreigners to the border. We are very poor here and I will not send bread or water on the train. Meanwhile you Americans and Mexicans and Frenchmen, my telegraph will be open to you and you can protest to your governments. If the American government doesn't like my actions it can go to hell. I have been fighting for twenty years and I am willing to fight as many years more."

The northern leader's tirade ended in a general order for the confiscation of all stores in Chihuahua by his "government."

Among the foreign firms affected by the order were the general supply store of Ketelsen and Degetau, German citizens; the hardware establishment of Krakauer, Zork and Moye, the jewelry store of E. H. Booth, the merchandise store of L. W. Thompson, all Americans; the dry goods house of William Bunzow and half a dozen others. The train which was to carry the foreigners to the border had not arrived at the border up to late last night, and anxiety was increasing in El Paso as to the fate of the Americans and other foreigners.

Danger of Massacre.
"If Villa turns loose the population of Chihuahua to loot the stores which he has confiscated and they get hold of the saloons, there is danger of a horrible massacre among the Americans," said a man who is intimately acquainted with the situation.

"That very thing may happen. And, for all we know positively, it may have taken place since the last word came from Chihuahua Sunday."

Joan Brittingham's great soap factory at Brittingham station, a short distance north of Torreón was confiscated last week, according to arrivals from Torreón, by order of General Villa because the owner had refused him a loan of $100,000 gold. This property is valued at nearly $6,000,000.

ILLINOIS CAPITALIST IN TRYING MISADVENTURE

Falls 60 Feet into Well, Rescued 3 Hours Later.

Vandalia, Ill., Aug. 2.—John Mockler, a retired tobaccoist of this city, fell sixty feet into an abandoned well. For over three hours his cries went in vain, when finally a passerby heard him and with several of Mockler's neighbors rescued him.

By bracing his feet against the walls of the well Mockler raised himself above the water. This strain so exhausted him that twice he let go and dropped back. He was very weak when taken out of the well.

In the drop of sixty feet Mockler received only a small bruise on one arm.

PRAYER BRINGS CONFESSION

Negro Burglar Is Moved by Woman's Supplication at Jail.

Alton, Ill., Aug. 2.—Five minutes after Mrs. Rhoda Marrs conducted her weekly prayer service in the Alton jail, Roy Williams, a negro, held on suspicion that he had committed numerous burglaries in and around Alton, sent for Chief of Police J. J. Mullen and told him he wanted to make a clean breast of his crimes and to tell what he had done with the stolen property.

During the prayer service Williams had been deeply moved and Mrs. Marrs had told, as she was leaving the police station that Williams had been on his knees crying and evidently was very penitent. Hardly had she left the station when word was received that the prisoner wanted to talk, and he was given an audience.

PEORIA WOMAN PRAISES REMEDY

Mrs. Tilla Conard Tells Remarkable Experience After Suffering for Months.

Mrs. Tilla Conard lives at 307 Morgan Street, Peoria. She suffered from stomach trouble for months. Nothing seemed to give relief. One day she visited a sister who resides in Bloomington, and upon urgent advice consented to try one bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. This, in her own words, is the story of her experience—

"For a number of months I suffered terribly with pains in my stomach; would fill with gas and belch for an hour at a time. I had pains in my side which at times I thought would kill me. I was under the doctor's care for four months, but got no relief at all. One day while in Bloomington my sister persuaded me to take a bottle of your remedy. To say the results were wonderful would be putting it mildly. After the first dose my pain left me, my appetite improved, my skin became clear again and I felt like a new woman."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

LIMITS OF VISION.

Why It Seems to Rain in Streaks Instead of in Drops.

When it is raining just what does one see? We know that the rain consists of drops, nearly spherical, falling either vertically or at an angle if the wind be blowing. But what do we see? We see streaks through the air and not drops at all. The reason is that the eye cannot follow the raindrop in its flight and so cannot see just the drop continually. The eye gets only one glimpse of the drop in one position, while an impression is made on the retina for some distance by the drop moving.

If the drop were still we could look at it as long as we chose, and the image of the drop would be in just one place on the retina, but if we let the drop escape from our direct view it makes an image, or, rather, a succession of images, on the retina, and that is what we see.

But why does the retina show this succession of images? It certainly sees at any one time the drop in just one position, so it would seem that the last position seen would be the one. This is not the case, and the cause is due to what is known as persistence of vision. We cannot quit seeing a thing immediately after getting a view of it. It takes about an eighth of a second for the retina to lose an image, and so this succession of images will be on the retina at one time and will cause a streak.

For the same reason the spokes of a rapidly rotating wheel cannot be seen except as a blur. For the same reason moving pictures are possible.—New York American.

BEAUTIFUL NOSES.

They Are Very Rare, It Seems, and Deserve Honorable Mention.

Lovely eyes you will find a plenty, and, though finely cut mouths are scarcer, it will be a strange day when you do not see several. But the discovery of a really beautiful nose is an event of a lifetime. I myself have found exactly seven. And yet I consider myself catholic in my taste for noses. I can enjoy a nose for its mere expressiveness, whether it is aggressive or aristocratic or humorous.

But it is amazing how seldom this bridge really satisfies the eye. The bridge may be too thick or too high, the line from the forehead too abrupt or too severely straight. More often a nose that is really promising in its beginning fails in the end. It keeps on too long or not long enough, while the tip finds a dozen ways to err, and a fine nostril is rarely seen. In our typical American faces, overcrowded with features as our houses are with furniture, the nose is commonly disproportionately large.

But your really beautiful nose is a delight in every way. It is as far from sharpness as from coarseness. It shows strength without obtrusiveness, delicacy without fastidiousness, breeding without arrogance. It suggests humor, spirit and daring. But I tell you candidly that there are not more than 100 such in the 4,000,000 noses of New York. You are lucky when one happens to come your way.—Atlantic Monthly.

On Prisoners of War.

With reference to the modern treatment of prisoners of war, it is interesting to recall the views which R. L. Stevenson in his novel, "St. Ives," puts into the mouth of a French prisoner of war in Edinburgh castle, which was turned into a military prison in the time of Napoleon. He says: "There is a horrible practice in England to trick out in ridiculous uniform and, as it were, to brand in mass, not only convicts, but military prisoners and even the children in charity schools. I think some malignant genius had found his masterpiece of irony in the dress which we were condemned to wear—jacket, waistcoat and trousers of a sulphur or mustard yellow and a shirt of blue and white stripe cotton."—London Standard.

An Old Guidebook.

Of all the old guidebooks none is sought so keenly by collectors as some of Murray's early guides. Perhaps the most precious of these as a bibliographical curiosity is the first edition of "Murray's Guide to Switzerland," published in 1838. Mountaineering as a popular pastime was not then invented, and in the section devoted to Mont Blanc the author contemptuously declares that "it is a somewhat remarkable fact that a large proportion of those who have made this ascent have been persons of unsound mind."—London Chronicle.

A Domestic Tilt.

"Why do you persist in propping your feet up on the veranda railing?" asked Mrs. Cobble.

"I suggest it's just my contrary nature," answered Mr. Cobble. "The veranda railing is one thing that have never been able to put where I can't find it."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"In financial trouble? What is it?"

"Oh, I promised to pay Brown $10 today, and I've got it, and he knows I've got it, and he knows I've got it!"—Boston Journal.

WEST BROOKLYN

West Brooklyn welcomes you to their free band concerts on Thursday evenings.

Keep the dance of August 4th in mind as a fine time awaits every one who attends. The ladies of St. Mary's have always proven themselves hospitable entertainers.

John E. Busser was in West Brooklyn Thursday afternoon on business.

F. D. Gehant and Son put a new plate glass window in the Henry Hild man building the first days of the week to replace the one broken during the wind storm some time ago. Since the glass has been put in place Arthur Oester has very tastefully decorated both his windows with a fine display.

John Haub was in West Brooklyn on Wednesday transacting business.

The carpenters have been busy at the school house this week taking away the old seats and putting new and comfortable ones in their places. We are certain the pupils will be delighted with the change at the opening of school next month.

G. G. Mireley was in West Brooklyn transacting business on Thursday afternoon.

Clarence Litts of Rock Island is in town these days visiting his father and other relatives.

Phone us your news items as we appreciate every one and we know our readers do, too. It helps make the paper better for all.

W. W. Waite of Blount, S. Dak., who has been a business visitor in West Brooklyn for the past few days, went to Chicago on Friday morning on business in connection with the Hughes Bank of Blunt, of which institution he is president.

The inclement weather Thursday prevented the regular concert by the local band but the same program will be given on the coming Thursday evening so as not to deprive the people of hearing every number of the series of these splendid concerts arranged by the business men of West Brooklyn for the summer season.

Tell your friends about the music and meet the crowd in West Brooklyn for over an entire hour. The larger the crowd, the more enthusiasm is created among the players and the better spirit is displayed in their music. None of the band members are subject to stage fright so let everybody come and enjoy the music Thursday night. Enjoy the treat of our business men and citizens every week.

Henry Glaser of Compton was a business visitor in West Brooklyn the early part of the week.

F. E. Halsey was in West Brooklyn from the Valley on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dingler of Sterling visited with H. A. Bernardin and family this week. Mr. Dingler returned to his work during the middle of the week but his wife remained for a longer visit with her parents.

I shall appreciate a prompt payment of all accounts owing to me. Pay either at the bank or to me personally. M. J. Bieschke.

David Burkhardt was in town on last Wednesday transacting business matters.

Mrs. F. W. Meyer and daughter, Zeta, returned home on last Wednesday evening from a few days' visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Minnihan of Viola township were calling upon friends in West Brooklyn Thursday afternoon.

The opera house movies on Saturday night afford a class of entertainment not often to be enjoyed in the small towns and our people should attend whenever possible to continue the shows for the future. The attendance is what will keep the show going.

The funeral of A. J. Gardner of Viola township was held from the home on Thursday afternoon with burial at the Union cemetery of this place. The deceased had been troubled for a long time and relief was sought by undergoing an operation at the Chandler hospital in Rochelle. Mr. Gardner could not withstand the effects of the operation and passed away on Wednesday, July 25th, 1915, at the hospital. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and several children, beside other relatives and friends. The News extends sympathy to his family in their bereavement.

Edward Haefner and wife were visiting with friends in town Thursday.

F. D. Gehant has purchased a farm in South Dakota consisting of 150 acres of fine land near Blunt. Mr. Gehant is very much enthused with the country and conditions there and believes its future is as great as is ours here. South Dakota already has claimed many residents of this vicinity and all of them have done well there. Mr. Gehant made his purchase for investment purposes only and will continue to devote his entire time and energy to his growing implement and hardware industry in West Brooklyn.

Charles Clark and wife were visitors in West Brooklyn Thursday afternoon.

George Chaon returned to his home in Davenport, Iowa, on Wednesday night after spending several days in West Brooklyn and vicinity as the guest of his parents and other relatives.

I have some fine cooking apples for sale but you must call soon. J. P. Sondgeroth.

The marriage of Miss Gladys McCrea to Mr. Florian Walter will take place in St. Mary's church on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, followed by a reception tendered in honor of the bride by her parents at the home during the day. A full account of the wedding will be found in this issue.

A new drinking fountain was installed on Main street by the village authorities on Thursday and we are certain the people happening in West Brooklyn will appreciate the addition very much. We have boasted of two fine drinking places for horses for a number of years but none had ever been installed purposely for the people themselves. The new fountain is to be found just at the edge of the walk outside the Haas & Oester garage. It is quite attractive in appearance as well as useful.

The Misses Mary and Carrie Berscheid are at home again after spending a week or two at the summer resort in Wisconsin.

William Guthrie of the Berg was in West Brooklyn on last Saturday.

M. J. Haas and Joseph Bernardin motored to Sublette on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. J. O'Hare of Lee Center township visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bauer on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Melhaussen and family of Ashton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bernardin and Mr. and Mrs. August Melhaussen of our town this week.

Miss Barbara McCrea of Dabolt, Iowa, is here for the McCrea-Walters nuptials and is visiting friends for a few days.

F. E. Halsey was in West Brooklyn from Viola township on last Saturday morning.

We are sure you will enjoy a fine evening at the dance on Wednesday night. The ladies of St. Mary's are noted for their hospitality and their methods of entertainment and this should be a great drawing card for the dancers.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gehant were visitors in West Brooklyn Saturday morning.

Robert Armstrong of Nebraska is visiting at the D. L. Abell home these days.

Mr. Wise Guy.

Mr. Wise Guy sat beside the road watching his chauffeur doctor a puncture. Presently a farmer, leading a youthful calf, passed.

"Where'd you get the calf, Rube?"

Mr. Wise Guy inquired impudently.

"Set a hen on a bottle of milk," was the reply.

And Mr. Wise Guy was mean enough to threaten to fire the chauffeur for laughing.—Indianapolis News.

MANY NURSES IN ILLINOIS AND ELSEWHERE SAY THE SAME.

WORN OUT AND OVERWORKED.

Kankakee, Ill.—"When I was a worn-out condition from overwork and nursing the sick, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I found it just as represented. It aided me in building up my health and gave me new strength and ambition. So far as I used it I was well satisfied with it."—Mrs. F. L. Cooran, 340 North East Ave., Kankakee, Ill.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery helps the stomach digest the food and manufacture nourishing blood. It has a tonic effect and soon enables the stomach and heart to perform their functions in a natural, healthy manner, without any outside aid.

Contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. Its ingredients are made public and printed on wrapper. It's a pure alternative extract made with glycerine from native roots and herbs.

Sold by medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form, or send 50 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial box of tablets.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser—a great doctor book—a family book of 1008 pages, cloth bound—answers many important questions regarding sickness. Your free copy will be sent on receipt of three dimes, or stamps, to pay wrapping and mailing charges from Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original Little Liver Pills. These tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules—the smallest and the easiest to take. One little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are relieved and prevented.

Put up in sealed vials—a perfect vest-pocket remedy, always convenient.

SCHOFIELD HOTEL AND COTTAGES

This popular resort is almost as well known as the Dells. It has been entertaining summer guests for forty years, and has lately been enlarged in capacity by the erection of a large modern building, fully equipped with every modern convenience, and affording dining room, assembly parlors, etc. This is an addition to the popular cottage plan, and adds to the previous popular attractions of the older system. The hotel and cottages are in extensive grounds, delightfully shaded by large oaks, and being away from the river is most especially desirable for families with children. The location is in the edge of Kilbourn on a pretty resident street, but a pleasant walk from the river and depot, and with regular free bus and carriage service to these points. The large hotel is not surpassed in this locality in point of modern style and comfort. The annex cottages and grounds make it altogether everything that anybody would desire. The test of efficiency is in the table. This hotel is especially noted for its excellent table board. Fresh butter, eggs, vegetables and fruit are supplied daily from the farm, and its preparation by a professional chef is perfect; chicken dinners twice a week.

Rates: $2 per day, $12 per week, half rates for children; rates made to family for week or longer. Rooms with bath must be applied for in advance. Free use of garage.

Soft, Fluffy Hair Always Aids Beauty and Charm

If your hair is not beautiful lacking that enviable softness, lustre and fluffiness, too dry, or the scalp itches and burns, by all means use Parisian Sage, an inexpensive and delicately perfumed liquid easily obtained at any drug counter or from Rowland Bros.

Simply rub Parisian Sage well into the scalp. It will go right to the hair roots, nourish them, and stimulate the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. It removes every trace of dandruff, thoroughly cleanses the hair of dust and excess oil, and makes it soft, fluffy and lustrous. Parisian Sage is always safe, always reliable and can be used constantly without the slightest injury and should give the hair just what it needs to make it rich looking and be wondrously beautiful.

the lives of Miss Gladys McCrea and Mr. Florian Walter, both of West Brooklyn. The marriage occurred at St. Mary's church with the Rev. M. B. Krug officiating. The couple were attended by Miss Emily Jeanguenat, a cousin of the bride, and Mr. Amor Lauer, a cousin of the groom.

The bride was garbed in a white silk crepe gown trimmed in oriental lace. She wore a Juliet cap trimmed with lilies of the valley and white satin slippers. She carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley and bridal roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in yellow silk crepe trimmed with shadow lace. She wore a hat trimmed with daisies and she also wore white slippers. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The gentlemen were dressed in blue serge. The home was tastefully decorated in yellow and white and hung profusely with wedding bells. It was the scene of a very pretty wedding reception tendered by the parents in honor of their daughter to her relatives of near degree. Mr. and Mrs. Walter left on the next day for an extended wedding tour and while away will visit Chicago, Joliet, Kankakee and other cities in Illinois, where they have numerous relatives. The bride's traveling suit was of blue serge.

Mrs. Walter is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McCrea, prominent residents of our neighborhood, and is a lady of refinement and culture, being a graduate of St. Joseph's Seminary at Kankakee, Ill. She has always been prominent with the younger generation of our town and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances who join in our best wishes at this time. Her husband is the only son of Mrs. Mary Walter of West Brooklyn and he, too, has been among our prominent folk for a number of years. He is a graduate of St. Bede college of Peru and has held the important position of Assistant Postmaster of West Brooklyn up to the time of receiving his present appointment of Rural Mail Carrier a little over a year ago. Fraternally he is a member of the local court of Foresters and is bass drummer for the West Brooklyn Cornet band. The happy couple will make their home in West Brooklyn in the midst of their friends after returning from their honeymoon where we are glad to welcome them. Our heartiest congratulations and best wishes are theirs for a long and happy life.

Dined in Grand Detour
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schroeder of Preston, Ia., who were week end guests of their aunt, Mrs. E. K. Bartholomew, their hostess and her daughter, Miss Maude, Mrs. Purry of New York City, Louis Bryan and Lloyd Bartholomew motored to Grand Detour Sunday and dined at the Colonial Inn.

Barn Party
Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Buhler of Palmyra will entertain with a barn party this evening in their fine barn which is in process of construction. Between thirty-five and forty of the friends in the neighborhood have been invited and a pleasant time is anticipated with music and games to furnish the entertainment. Refreshments of cream and cake will be served. Rain this evening may postpone again the merrymaking as it has been the big "if" in the way when the party was to have been given last week.

Guest of Miss Petersberger
Miss Alma Reinheiser of Arcola, Ill., will arrive Thursday to be the house guest for some time of Miss Amy Petersberger.

Guest of Sister
Miss Hazel Hart of Natchua is the guest for the remainder of the week of her sister, Mrs. Will Meppin of Palmyra.

From Walnut
O. D. Risdon of Walnut was in this city yesterday and said that the corn and other crops in that section are further along than here and in a much better condition. Mr. Risdon and family formerly made Dixon their home, and friends here will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Risdon has just returned from a very pleasant three months' trip throughout the west and California where she visited both expositions.

Entertaining Friends
Miss Emma Canterbury is entertaining a few friends this afternoon informally.

Camped at Lake Senachwine

Miss Alma Reinheiser of Arcola, Ill., will arrive Thursday to be the house guest for some time of Miss Amy Petersberger.

Guest of Sister
Miss Hazel Hart of Natchua is the guest for the remainder of the week of her sister, Mrs. Will Meppin of Palmyra.

From Walnut
O. D. Risdon of Walnut was in this city yesterday and said that the corn and other crops in that section are further along than here and in a much better condition. Mr. Risdon and family formerly made Dixon their home, and friends here will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Risdon has just returned from a very pleasant three months' trip throughout the west and California where she visited both expositions.

Entertaining Friends
Miss Emma Canterbury is entertaining a few friends this afternoon informally.

Camped at Lake Senachwine
Misses Gertrude and Elizabeth Wold returned Friday from a several weeks' camping trip to Lake Senachwine. Motor side trips were made to Peoria, Princeton, Tiskilwa, and several other nearby towns.

You—Or No One Else
cares to be bald. Yet that is what will happen if your hair does not stop falling out.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic
In our opinion is the best hair tonic on the market. Sold only by us—50 cents.
C. M. Campbell & Son.

At Michigan
Mr. and Mrs. William Greig and son William left Thursday for Flint, Mich., to enjoy a two weeks' outing.

At Schuck Home
Mr. and Mrs. John Gaurapp were entertained yesterday at the Richard Schuck home.

WHERE THE DAY CHANGES.

The International Date Line in the Pacific Ocean.

A great many people cannot see why when a man crosses the international date line in the Pacific ocean if he goes toward the east he loses a day and if toward the west he gains a day—that is, if it, say, happens to be Tuesday just this side if he crosses to the west it will be Monday. The distance he may have actually gone need be only a few feet, but it is true nevertheless. The actual time may be only a second's difference.

To understand this remember that we go from Monday to Tuesday at 12 o'clock at night—jump immediately from one day to another. Consider also that if a man could travel toward the east as fast as the earth rotates and if he started at midday, with the sun directly overhead, he would go completely round the earth in no solar time at all, for the sun would always be just over his head and to him it would be 12 o'clock all the time if he measured time by the position of the sun. He would not experience any night at all and so would have twenty-four hours of sunlight. But it has actually taken him twenty-four hours to get around, so the time when he reached his starting place again would be 12 o'clock noon all right, but would be a day later than when he started. So it can be readily seen that some meridian on the earth's surface must be picked out as the starting point of a new day, and the chosen one lies almost entirely in the Pacific ocean.—Every Week.

Where It Would Be Eliminated.
"Well, Aunt Dinah," asked the cook's young mistress, "are you going to have the word 'obey' eliminated from the marriage ceremony?"

"No, child, I ain't," said Aunt Dinah, "but I sho' am winter hab it done 'limited from de matrimony."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Unusual Case.
Mrs. Snapp—And why do you think Mrs. De Punk queer? Mrs. Rapp—Well, she has everything on earth to make her happy and still she's happy.—New York Globe.

NATURE AS A DESIGNER.

If You Need a Model of Equilibrium Study the Kangaroo.

There was a certain college professor of machine design who was as original in his views as he was able in his subject. One of his pet theories was the interrelation between nature and correct design.

"Boys," he would say, "there has been only one designer who never made a mistake, and the more we study his work the better machines we will build. When you put legs under a machine think of a horse or a cow, and get them as far apart as you can. Don't get too much overhanging at either end."

"And, speaking of a counterbalance, study the kangaroo. There is no prettier example of equilibrium in all positions. The further over he leans the more his tail comes into action off the ground. And again, in speaking of general design, wherever possible, try to work for elasticity as against rigidity. You find very little of the rigid in nature, and little trees often survive a gale by bending, where big ones are blown down."

All of which was undoubtedly very true, and made more of an impression on his hearers than some of the more complicated mathematical demonstrations that followed.—John H. Van Deventer in Engineering Magazine.

HUMAN WASTE IS BIG WAR'S SHAME.

Henry Clews, New York financier, knows what an immense property loss the great war will entail. He knows it will amount to many billions of dollars and that the nations of the world will be bowed down with the weight of it for years to come, but he sees as the greatest waste of this frightful war the destruction of human life—the wiping out of the best of the young men of the nations. He says in part in this week's letter to the Telegraph:

War has now been waged for a full year, and during that time nearly two and a half million lives have been destroyed and about $17,000,000,000 issued in loans. These figures do not include wounded and missing, nor the amount lost through damage to property, derangement of trade, etc., all of which are incalculable. In some instances the losses will not be as great as they appear, for the reason that armies and fleets would have required usual pay in time of peace, and both would have been consumers of food and clothing, though on a less wasteful scale. No one can estimate or even approximate the real property losses of the war. Some authorities have put the figure thus far at $25,000,000,000 and over. The moral and human dangers, however, must be regarded as vastly more serious than property losses. So, too, is the inevitable setback to civilization which this war will impose. Material losses at first seem most imposing and create the greatest impression. Nevertheless, they will be the first forgotten. Infinitely beyond these must be ranked the awful wastage of the flower of humanity. Property ruin will be chiefly remembered in the form of big debts, heavy taxation, ruined cities, etc., while the loss of valuable lives will be reflected in saddened homes, a less virile population and other losses beyond calculation.

Should the war not last more than a couple of years, the cost will probably be borne much more easily than expected. All of the countries involved have grown greatly in wealth and population since the last great war; and in view of the increased wealth and earnings per capita this struggle may weigh no heavier upon the present belligerents than previous great wars. Each nation, even Germany, upon whom the strain will be greatest, will show unexpected capacity for both resistance and recuperation.

Our foreign commerce which has been seriously deranged by war, showed total exports of $2,768,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30th, an increase of $404,000,000 over last year. Imports during the same period aggregated $1,674,000,000, a decrease of $219,000,000 during the twelve months. These figures left an excess of $1,094,000,000 in exports, or $23,000,000 more than a year ago. They are about what was expected, and plainly reflect the abnormal difficulties under which foreign trade is conducted. At the moment the foreign exchange situation is less acute, but in a few weeks the outward movement of grain and cotton will begin and the shipment of war munitions will continue to expand for months to come; so that in the absence of larger imports a continued heavy excess of exports must be anticipated for the remainder of the year.

The chief object of concern is, of course, our relations with Germany. These are likely to assume a more friendly aspect. The hope that a diplomatic break will be escaped is the sincere wish of every true American. Everyone should stand by the President in his efforts to preserve peace. Nevertheless, the situation is full of dangerous possibilities which at any time might have an important effect upon the market. The excessive activity in the war stocks is an element of danger. The outlook is for an active market for some time to come. Ordinary home conditions are favorable to higher prices, but the influences at work are so complex and so abnormal that exception prudence is required in all financial transactions.

When the German Government is made to realize that the President does not really mean in his attitude that the submarine warfare must stop, except against American ships and our citizens, it is reasonable to expect that Germany will concede our contention. I am quite sure she will, after due reflection.

PREPARATION FOR PEACE.

Those nations which are not engaged in the war are compelled not only to stand by their rights so far as they are affected by it, but to look beyond it and consider what is essential for security hereafter. The United States is not prepared for war, and its people have no desire to be drawn into any European conflict, but they will stand for their rights and support the honor of their government "at whatever cost."

The situation that is now presented should be accepted as a warning that a nation which must necessarily assume the attitude described at such a juncture should be prepared to maintain it if it should be challenged or assailed. There is a difference between being prepared for aggressive warfare and conquest, and being prepared to maintain peace if it should be wantonly menaced. The United States must be sufficiently armed, not only for defense if attacked, but for the commanding respect in any controversy that may arise involving its rights and its dignity as a nation. It should labor for peace and friendly relations, and avoid offense so that all peaceable powers may be on its side, but it cannot afford to present a defenseless aspect or be compelled in case of attack to spend years in resistance which would have been unnecessary if it had been prepared to assert itself in case of affront. There is nothing to be feared from the present war in Europe, and it is to be hoped that its dreadful cost and direful consequences will lead to a policy of peace that will endure; but even for taking its part in establishing and maintaining such a policy the United States will need to have not only defenses along its extended shores, but an army and a navy which will rank among the powers that assume the task of maintaining peace and guarding the rights of nations against the forces of barbarism in the midst of civilization.—New York Journal of Commerce.

A newspaper man made a mistake in writing up some amateur athletics and mentioned the name of one of the local coal dealers, who had figured quite prominently in the event, as the light-weight champion, much to the embarrassment and indignation of the coal merchant.

The Freeport Journal-Standard, one of the fine, old, dependable newspapers of the state, has just shown splendid enterprise and prosperity by installing a new $14,000 Duplex stereotyping press.

It would appear from last night's shower that the drouth has been effectually broken.

STEERS TORPEDO TWENTY MILES AT SEA.

John Hays Hammond, Jr.

John Hays Hammond, Jr., son of the well-known mining engineer, has perfected a wireless apparatus by which he can control the movements of a small boat twenty miles at sea from his front porch on the ocean shore at Gloucester, Mass. He has made experiments with this boat in order to learn to control a torpedo to be sent against a hostile battleship, and now he has so nearly succeeded that army officers who have made an investigation think he has provided a means for defense which would make it impossible for a foreign battleship to get anywhere near striking distance of the United States.

Purchase of the wireless torpedo probably will be recommended to congress by Secretary Garrison. The appropriations committees of the last congress were urged to buy the Frank C. Vaughan, ex-county treasurer, stopped off in this city yesterday morning on his way home to Amboy from Chicago where he has been the past week assisting Coroner Peter Hoffman of Cook county in looking after the bodies of the unfortunate who lost their lives in the Eastland disaster.

Mrs. Frank Schoenholz is entertaining her sister, Miss Mamie Byrd, of Jewell, Ia., for a few weeks.

Donald Grover, little son of City Clerk Blake Grover and wife, went to Hubbard Woods, near Chicago, Saturday, for a visit with his uncle, Frank Harned.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thompson and children returned Sunday evening from a week end visit in Morrison with Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Tuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Zigler and daughter, Miss Minnie, of Woosung, were shoppers here yesterday afternoon.

Miss Lillian Clayton of Amboy is here visiting her sister, Miss Nettie Clayton.

Supervisor John Banks of Compton was here today.

James Ford of Joliet is visiting his father, Dominick Ford, in Dixon.

C. P. Dillow of Amboy was here today.

Attorney E. H. Brewster and family arrived home Saturday from a three weeks' motoring trip through Michigan. They went north as far as Mackinac Island. They shipped their car back to Chicago and drove it out from there.

A. M. Smith is here from Chicago.

W. D. Baum and Mrs. Belle Morris have gone to Sycamore, N. Y., where they were called by the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Elias Jackson. Mrs. Jackson resided in this city several years ago.

Miss Alice Brand was here from Polo today.

D. Barnhizer of Polo was in attendance at the Assembly today.

John Tingle has been engaged to assist at the E. J. Countryman store.

Mrs. Allan Hirsch of Polo spent the day here at the Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hiltbarger and Mrs. Pooley of Polo were Dixon visitors today and attended the Assembly.

Miss Iva Rapp of Sterling was the guest Sunday of Miss Mary Valle.

Frank Stephan was in Franklin Grove Monday morning on business.

Launch controlled wireless. Invention for coast protection, but no action was taken.

The boat has two collapsible masts which work like plunger elevators, and can therefore avoid the enemy's range.

In a recent experiment at Gloucester, Hammond erected a thirteen-foot bamboo pole one and a half inches in diameter three and a half miles off shore. He hit this slender target with torpedoes ten out of fifteen times.

Army officers see great possibilities of extending the usefulness of wireless control with the aid of the aero-plane scout. An aviator flying high and out of range might, by wireless to the operator ashore, direct an attack on a hostile ship out of sight of the shore station.

NEGRO CONFESSES HE 'KILLED MRS. MARTIN

Murphysboro, Ill., Slayer Says He Was Drunk.

Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 3.—Joe Deberry, negro house servant, has confessed the murder of Mrs. James H. Martin, wife of Attorney James H. Martin of this place. Deberry made the confession to the sheriff at the Harrisburg jail, where he was taken to prevent his lynching at the hands of mobs.

"I didn't follow Mrs. Martin upstairs Friday to rob her of her diamonds or to assault her. I went up there to kill her. I was crazy from drinking gin I had bought the night before. She made me mad by asking me to wash the dinner dishes at 1 o'clock in the afternoon when I wanted to go down town and let them lay over until later in the day.

"I killed her with a poker. I followed her up stairs to do it. I don't know how many times I hit her. I heard her ask me if I was drunk, and I struck out. She fell at the third blow. I struck her more times in the hallway and left her there. Then I went down stairs and changed clothes and washed the blood stains away."

PENOLOGY FROM NEW ANGLE

Doctor's Patients Call at Jail for Treatment.

Cairo, Ill., Aug. 3.—Even though he has served little more than a few weeks of a four months' jail sentence imposed after conviction for assault with a deadly weapon, the practice of Dr. Ernest J. Duncan of Tamms is not totally wiped out.

Many persons have come to the jail for medical advice. In the most unique consultation room in the world—his cell—Dr. Duncan meets his patients, examines them and writes his prescriptions.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur dyes hair so naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

1915 COTTON CROP SMALLER

Government Predicts Output of Third Less Than Last Year.

Washington, Aug. 3.—This year's cotton crop will be approximately 11,970,937 equivalent 500-pound bales, compared with 16,134,930 bales last year.

That estimate, unofficially calculated, is based on the government's condition report issued recently and official figures of acreage and normal yield. Whether the crop will be greater or less depends upon growing conditions from now until picking time.

BULGARIA TO GET $50,000,000

German Bankers Contract to Take Loan, Berlin Reports.

Berlin, Aug. 2.—According to the Cologne Gazette, a group of German bankers headed by the Disconto Gesellschaft has made a contract with the Bulgarian government to take about $50,000,000 of the 5 per cent Bulgarian gold loan of 1914. The Disconto Gesellschaft has been charged to redeem $24,000,000 of Bulgarian treasury notes due early in August.

ALLIES IN RAID ON FOES' SHIPS

Submarines Sink German Destroyer and Cruiser.

CONSTANTINOPLE IS HIT HARD

Submersibles Enter Sea of Marmora and Torpedo Powder Mills and Work Great Destruction—Golden Horn Bridge Connecting Europe and Asia Is Blown Up.

London, Aug. 3.—Great Britain and France have started to carry the submarine war to Germany. From the Dardanelles to the North sea the allies' undersea craft have opened a campaign against the Germans and Turks which already has cut Constantinople off from Asia, thrown the city into terror and sunk a German torpedo boat destroyer, a German cruiser, a 3,000 ton Turkish steamer and two Turkish transports.

One French and a second British submarine, according to official announcements, augmented by press dispatches, succeeded in forcing the Dardanelles and dashing past Constantinople into the Sea of Marmora. With the sight of the Turkish capital the submarines shelled and blew up the Galata bridge across the Golden Horn, connecting Constantinople with Asiatic Turkey, according to a dispatch to the Times from Mitylene.

Two Transports Sunk.
To add to the terror of the Turks the British submarine then stole into the harbor and almost under the walls of the Top-Kanah arsenal in Constantinople, where it sent a torpedo into a transport and sent it to the bottom. The craft followed this by sinking another transport in Karabogha bay.

According to dispatches from Mudros this exploit threw the entire Turkish capital into terror. The feat of the British submarine, as announced by the admiralty, has added another exploit to the annals of warfare by bombarding shore positions with torpedoes. Turkish powder mills and the railway of Kara Burnu, along the Sea of Marmora were attacked.

Raid German Coast.
According to another admiralty announcement the British have finally replied to the German submarine warfare by adopting the methods of Von Tirpitz and raiding the German coast. The admiralty statement says: "A British submarine has returned and reports the sinking of a German torpedo boat destroyer, believed to be of the G-198 class, on July 26, near the German coast."

German destroyers of the G-196 class were built in 1910 and 1911. They are of 690 tons displacement, with a speed of thirty-two knots an hour.

Cruiser Also Sunk.
The admiralty announced last night that a German cruiser was sunk by a British submarine near the German coast July 26.

KILLED WHEN AUTO UPSETS

Robert Hood, Indianapolis, Dies of Injuries at Noblesville.

Noblesville, Ind., Aug. 3.—Robert Hood, age thirty, of Indianapolis, died in a hospital here from injuries suffered in an automobile accident. He and Morton Dale, also of Indianapolis, were driving to Noblesville. Four miles south of Noblesville the machine plunged off a small bridge and landed upside down in the bottom of a ditch. Both men were pinned beneath the automobile. Dale escaped with only a few slight bruises, but Hood was hurt internally.

L. T. WOODCOCK DROPS DEAD

General Manager of Marshall Field's Retail Store Succumbs.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Lindsay T. Woodcock, general manager of the retail store of Marshall Field Co., dropped dead of heart disease on the Randolph street bridge while he was walking to his office.

He had left a Chicago & North Western railroad train at the passenger terminal at West Madison and Canal streets a short time before, according to his usual custom.

STEADFAST CONFIDENCE

The Following Statement Should Form Conclusive Proof of Merit to Every Dixon Reader.

Could stronger proof of the merit of any remedy be desired than the statements of grateful endorers who say their confidence has been undiminished by lapse of time? These are the kind of statements that are appearing constantly in your local papers for Doan's Kidney Pills. They are twice-told and confirmed with new enthusiasm. Can any reader doubt the following. It's from a Dixon resident:

B. A. Worley, blacksmith, Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and annoying and my back ached. After using Doan's Kidney Pills, the pains left my back and my kidneys became regular in action." (Statement given May 21st, 1912.)

Over two years later, Mr. Worley said: "Whenever my back gets lame and sore and needs a kidney medicine, I use Doan's Kidney Pills, and they give me relief."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Worley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
